

Omaha Elks and Flag Day Parade at Empress

The Omaha Elks and Flag day parade pictures will be shown at the Empress the first half of the week, beginning today. The day of the parade was very clear and the pictures are distinct. It will be an opportunity for a lot of folks to see how they looked on parade as this event was participated in by the largest number of people that ever marched in Omaha at one time. "The Criminal's Thumb," featuring Alexander Gaden and Lucile Taft, is a story of a man with a spatulate thumb. Criminologists say that this thumb is a sure sign of criminality and the man is followed throughout his life. His crippled thumb is finally the cause of his conviction for participation in the murder of a wealthy banker. "Jerry's Elopement" is a Cub comedy with George Ovey. Without money or position Jerry wins the love of a wealthy Frenchman's daughter, but not her father's favor. Their elopement and the final winning of the parent's consent is an exciting and comical performance. "The Day's Work," a Beauty comedy and the Mutual Weekly completes the program.

Marguerite Snow Star Of Muse Photoplay Bill

"His Great Triumph" one of the sensational feature productions of the season, will be the principal attraction at the Muse theater today and Monday. Miss Snow is seen at her best in this Metro wonderplay. She essays the role of a daughter of a wealthy judge, who becomes interested in a youth, the product of the slums, who comes into her life in a most peculiar manner. The story is based on the glorification of "Butsy" Gallagher, an obscure character of New York's great east side, who through his arrest for a murder which he didn't commit, becomes notorious, and mistaking it for fame, causes many complex situations and peculiar problems. The manner in which this complication is unfolded, and the introduction of a strong contrast of life among the wealthy class, forms one of the series of situations, included in this program is "The Mishaps of Musty Suffer," and Hearst Weekly. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, by popular demand, a return engagement has been booked for "The Ne'er-do-Well." Many people who tried to attend the opening nights of the Muse were turned away, so Mr. Shirley has decided to show it again. Friday and Saturday the feature will be "Love's Toll." The seventh episode of "Gloria's Romance," with Miss Billie Burke will also be shown.

Strand Screen Bill Is Diversified and Pleasing

Three unusually pleasing as well as diversified features are offered Strand patrons this week, commencing today when that well known screen favorite, Bessie Barriscale, is seen in "Sorrow of Love," a well produced story of a nun's life. Fay Tincher in "The Two O'Clock Train," is the accompanying comedy. For the Fourth, the green's liveliest actor, Douglas Fairbanks, in a comedy drama entitled "Reggie Mixes In." This is said to be Fairbanks' best bit of screen work to date, which is saying a whole lot, but advance reports say "You can't speak too highly of this picture," so you know what to expect. "Bubbles of Trouble" is the Keystone presented, and Hank Mann has the leading part. Friday and Saturday that Ziegfeld Follies beauty, Jose Collins, in a Fox visualization of "A Woman's Honor." This is said to be one of the most daring photoplays of the season and Miss Collins has surprised her admirers by proving that she can act an emotional role, as well as put over a popular song hit. Pathe's Weekly completes the program and is full of interesting war pictures.
